OBITUARY.

(Translated from the Portuguese Uniao Lusitana Hawaiian by request.)

It has pleased the Almighty to call up to a better life, on the 5th day of May last, at 8 o'clock in the morning, Mr. Luiz Pereira, a native of the Island of Terceira (Azores), parish of S. Joao de Deus, where he was born 80 years ago. Mr. L.
Pereira left his native country at the age of 12 or 14 and lived for many years in whalers and merchantmen, in one of which he arrived at these islands in the year 1857. After remaining here some time, he went to California, from where he returned again to Honolulu, at the time of the first reciprocity treaty, about 18 years ago, and ever since he remained here, living constantly alone up to the 18th of April, 1886, in which eventful day he very nearly lost his life, his whole property being burned up together with his personal effects out of which he succeeded in saving only a small box; he passed the whole of that miserable night wandering about in the streets. The next morning he called upon the well known merchant, Mr. M. S. Pereira, and asked him to take charge of his box, as he was left destitute without anyone to take care of him. Mr. Pereira then took him to his own house, gave him a room in which he lived until his last breath, and always treated him as his most intimate friend.

His funeral took place last Sunday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the solemn procession starting from Mr.
M. S. Pereira's residence in School street; the hearse was preceded by a carriage containing the Catholic priest, and by a band of music, and it was followed by a large number of members of the Portuguese Benevolent Society of S. Antonio, to which the deceased belonged as an honorary member, and to which he had spontaneously offered a gift of $100 on condition of being accompanied by that society to his last resting place. The hearse was also accompanied by many of the particular friends of Mr. M. S. Pereira, who pray that the Lord will grant peace and rest to the soul of the regretted deceased!

QUESTION ON COCONUTS.

EDITOR BULLETIN:— Under the superscription "What shall we do with waste land?" Mr.
Mr. Jas. G. Hitchfield has an interesting article on the coconut and its cultivation, in the course of which he expresses the opinion that the coconut palm "will grow where hardly anything else will," viz., in sandy, rocky soil, on the reefs, etc.

Without questioning the correctness of this statement I beg leave to say that unsuccessful attempts have been made in several localities on the islands within my personal observation, to grow coconut palms, notably at Kahului and on the beach at Kekaha, Kauai, where such conditions exist as he describes. The flat, sandy plains stretching away beyond Kahului towards Wailuku and Wai-kapu on one side, and towards Spreckelsville and Kula on the other, are said by tradition to have had forests of coconut palms extending almost down to the seashore in earlier days, but now not the smallest stump of a palm is to be seen, and the numerous young trees planted and tended with great care by parties ambitious to have these stalwart giants of the tropics flourishing in their gardens, either have died or present a straggling, melancholy appearance with no perceptible growth.
In Kekaha there are still numerous groves of coconut palms in the more fertile, swampy soil under the cliffs, but on the beach only a few decaying ones remain, and attempts to grow them there have been equally unsuccessful.

Whether the seed-nuts planted have been unhealthy, or some other condition detrimental to their growth been present, I do not know, and Mr. Hitchfield would confer a favor upon me, and probably upon a good many of your readers interested in this question by kindly stating in an article in your paper where and how good nuts can be obtained, and how to plant them in order to make a success of it. L. M. VETTESSEN.
Kahului, May 14, 1892.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines.
Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. Fifty cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith
